

BPL should not be allowed to function in the HF, VHF and UHF spectrum. Its interference problems will ruin the ability of hams, FEMA, power companies and the military to communicate effectively using HF. Instead, BPL should be shifted to the microwave spectrum wherein the interference potential is local and bandwidth is high.